

Boiler control optimization system, ULTY-V plus, granted international patents (4 countries)

The ULTY-V plus technology has been granted international patents in Taiwan, South Korea, China, and Hong Kong, following patent acquisition in Japan.

By focusing on the development and promotion of new technology, NYK IDEMITSU Green Solutions is committed as a global company to gaining international trust, enhancing technical skills, and acquiring more international patents.

